Michael Johnson Joins Relyco as Vice President of ePayment Solutions

Johnson to lead company's initiative to help transition customers from paper-based payments to electronic methods for accounts payable and payroll

Dover, N.H., March 20, 2012 – Relyco®, a leading provider of value-added business printing and payment solutions, today announced the hiring of Michael Johnson as vice president of ePayment solutions. Johnson joins Relyco to lead the company's initiative to help transition customers from traditional methods of paper-based check payments to time and money saving electronic payment methods for accounts payable and payroll.

For more than 23 years, Relyco has been a premier supplier of laser checks and payment solutions. As an active member of the American National Standards Institute (ANSI) ASC X9AB check processing committee, customers look to Relyco for expert advice. Recently, Relyco introduced new ePayment solutions that enable organizations to quickly set up electronic vendor payments and distributing payroll checks online.

- Paymode-X is the largest and fastest growing settlement network and makes paper-to-electronic migration fast, safe, and easy. Companies can make payments with unlimited digital remittance through the secure, Web-based portal, as well as, present purchase orders and receive and approve invoices.
- DocAgent is a secure online pay stub, W-2 and 1099 solution that significantly reduces operating expenses related to printing and delivering payroll stubs and tax documents.

“As our customers start to investigate electronic payment solutions, we need to leverage our payment and check expertise and focus on how our new software solutions can help them smoothly and cost-effectively make this transition,” said Michael Steinberg, president of Relyco. “We’re excited to have Mike join us to help us grow our ePayment solutions business as this is a very important market for the continued success of Relyco.”

Johnson brings over 27 years of extensive professional experience in senior management, sales and marketing programs, and business development to his new position at Relyco. Most recently, Johnson managed channel relationships and sales for Eastman Kodak Corporation's digital print solutions and software through Ricoh. In his career, Johnson has held other management roles at companies including LexisNexis, Forsyte Associates, Xerox, and ADP.
